

GDPR-information/Integrity policy - May 2020

May 25, 2018, the EU's new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) entered into force. GDPR strengthens the protection of personal privacy. We therefore want to inform you when are in contact with us how we process your personal data.

We at Women Leadership Hub are committed to protect and respect your personal privacy in all contacts and processing of your personal data.

Security

We take all appropriate technical and organizational security measures necessary to protect your personal information against unauthorized access, alteration, or destruction. However, it always involves a risk of disclosing personal data on digital channels as it is not completely possible to protect against infringement.

Personal information we save when you are a member or attend one of our courses or events is:

Name
Email address & phone number
Membership category
Workplace and position
Dietary preferences

We do not disclose this information to anyone else.

Deletion of data

Whenever you like you can unsubscribe from our email list or contact us and ask us to delete your information.

Contact details

If you have any questions, feel free to contact us at info@womenleadershiphub.se
If you want to be removed from our email list, then send to info@womenleadershiphub.se
Otherwise, you accept our way of dealing with your personal data

Women Leadership Hub WLH Ekonomisk Förening

For more information on the Data Protection Regulation, GDPR we refer to the Swedish Data Protection Authority <https://www.datainspektionen.se/other-lang/>